6. Application Process

6A. Description - Please provide a short description of the application process to obtain state authorization. If available, please provide web links to the specific references to all applicable state laws, regulations, manuals, forms, or other pertinent documents:

Application information and guidelines related to institutional approval can be found at:

http://mhec.maryland.gov/institutions_training/Pages/acadaff/AcadProgIns... [5]

6B. Processing Time - Generally, how long does it take to approve applications (assuming that the agency has received all required information from the institution)? Please provide a typical range if appropriate:

The out-of-state approval process can take up to 6 months.

6C. Duration - What is the authorization duration:

Initially for 1 year, for the first 5 years of operation.

6D. Maintenance - What does an institution need to do to maintain authorization:

Submit an annual renewal application, until such time as the institution qualifies for a multi-year renewal.

6E. Reporting - What kinds of information or data must an institution report to your agency as a condition for continued authorization? How frequently is this reported or updated? Is this information published or shared publicly:

Renewal application information and guidelines can be found at:

http://mhec.maryland.gov/institutions_training/Pages/acadaff/AcadProgIns... [6]

6F. Loss of Status - Can an institution lose its authorized status? If so, how?:

Yes, by not meeting the re-authorization criteria, as outlined in COMAR 13B.02.01.08, or at any time, not remaining in compliance with the standards on which its certificate of approval was based. COMAR 13B.02.01.09.

6Ga. Multi-Institutional Systems - Can a multi-institutional system or college corporation apply to your agency for authorization on behalf of all of its component institutions? If so, please describe the process:

If each institution is individually registered with or designated by the U.S. Department of Education, each is required to submit a separate application for authorization.

6Gb. Would multi-institution public systems be treated the same as multi-location for-profit institutions:

Yes

6H. Distinctive Features - What distinctive features in your authorization process would be useful for applicants to know (e.g., certain times during the year that you process applications for authorization, sharing of applications or information about proposed programs with institutions or other stakeholders in your state for comment):

Applications are circulated to already authorized in-state institutions for comment.

6I1. Amendments - Is your agency currently planning to amend its application process by the end of 2013:

Yes

6I2. If yes, please provide a brief description of the anticipated change:

To be determined.

6I3. If yes, when does the agency expect the change to be fully implemented:

2014

10. Enforcement

10A. If your agency finds that an institution or program is operating in your state without authorization, what is the resulting warning or enforcement action:

The Maryland Higher Education Commission may issue an order to cease and desist or may issue a notice of violation and impose a penalty. In addition, through the Office of the Attorney General, the Secretary of Higher Education may seek an injunction and other judicial remedies. The Commission also may require the refund of all tuition and fees.

10B. Can an institution or program appeal a warning or enforcement action? If yes, please describe the process or provide web links to the regulations/policies:

Yes, through administrative and judicial processes.

12. Other

12A. Is there anything else about the authorization process in your state that we and others ought to know about:

Institutions are strongly urged to review the Maryland Higher Education Commissions website [4] for information regarding the requirements and application process for authorization to operate within the State of Maryland and/or the registration process for fully online programs prior to contacting agency staff.
