

Eric Godin joined SHEEO as an associate vice president in January 2019. Dr. Godin oversees a Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation grant focused on the National Student Clearinghouse's Postsecondary Data Partnership (PDP) and leads SHEEO's outreach and support for community college systems. Before joining SHEEO, Dr. Godin served as associate vice chancellor for research & analytics for the Florida College System (FCS). In this role, he provided leadership and technical assistance for quality data submission and use to Florida's 28 community colleges, Florida Department of Education staff, and legislators. Prior to FCS, Dr. Godin worked for two national higher education associations, the Association for Institutional Research (AIR) and the Council of Independent Colleges (CIC). He holds a B.S. in psychology and sociology from the University of Richmond, an M.Ed. in higher education from the College of William and Mary, and a Ph.D. in higher education from Florida State University.
