

Gloria Auer

Executive Assistant

Gloria Auer joined SHEEO in September 2005. She serves as executive assistant for the association. In this role, she provides administrative support for all staff, and serves SHEEO as a technical editor. Prior to SHEEO, she spent several years at The Bloomsbury Review magazine, where she was trained in the fine arts of content and copy editing. Ms. Auer holds a bachelor's in K-12 education, graduating summa cum laude from Northern Arizona University. Gloria is an avid reader (preferring the classics) and music enthusiast (nearly all music will do!).