Equity Toolkit
Equipping Educators to Erase Equity Gaps

Purpose Of The Toolkit
Erasing equity gaps in the classroom

Although Colorado enjoys one of the highest education attainment rates nationally, the share of the white majority population that has earned a credential is more than twice that of our fastest-growing group—Latino and Hispanic Coloradans—and more than 1.5 times the share of African American, Black and American Indian Coloradans.

We can and must do better. As higher education leaders, it's on us to foster welcoming, thriving learning environments for all—especially in the classroom.
